

Montesquieu Encyclopédiste?

Catherine Volpilhac-Auger

~~€ 10,00~~ € 7,50

In french with translation in greek language.

In stock

SKU: N04.016.0

Categories: C.Th. Dimaras Annual Lecture,
Section of Neohellenic Research

Author: Catherine Volpilhac-Auger
Translation: Georges Koutzakiotis, Georges Talias
Year: 2012
Pages: 132
ISBN: 978-960-9538-04-6

Book Description

The sixteenth volume in the "Dimaras Lectures" series explores the shadowy relation of Montesquieu to the French Encyclopedia and its editors. Catherine Volpilhac-Auger sheds light on political engagement and editorial strategies at the time of the Enlightenment and asks the reader to reflect on the role of the intelligentsia in the shaping of public opinion and the formation of the public sphere.

Weight 211 g

Dimensions 14 × 20 cm
